

The jesuititcal de-rooting of reformation

We must start at the foot of the Cross,
For our soul's in danger, we're at loss.
And when we kneel in that awesome place,
At that very moment, you'll feel God's grace.

Friend, let me tell you; you need to know,
There is Heaven; also Hell below!
Christ died on that Cross, to set you free,
From your vile sins, and Hell's agony.

You're God's enemy, without the Cross,
Reject Christ, and to God, you are dross.
To the prison of Hell, He will send,
Just Christ's work on the Cross, makes amends.

God hates those who try to enter in
The gates of Heaven, still full of sin.
Only His Son, can take sin away,
Go to the foot of the Cross, this day.

God has provided only ONE Way,
To enter Heaven's wondrous array.
Accept what Jesus did for us all,
He paid our debt, so Hell won't befall.

Go to the foot of the Cross this day,
His precious Blood washes sin away.
We each need to think more of His Cross,
Without our Saviour, we're total loss.

THE RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF THE HOLY ROMAN EMPIRE

NAZI SOCIALISM AND CATHOLIC RESTORATION

<http://granddesignexposed.com/jesuitconnection/reformation.html>

The 19th century left us deplorably weak in true knowledge of the history of State-Church conflicts. The facts of human development since the Reformation have become so inextricably tangled, that we have ceased to try to unravel them. We content ourselves in America with a mere superficial knowledge of events, and the conclusions arrived at, far from helping us to get at the real truth, only drive us farther away from an understanding of the real meaning of these events. Too much emphasis has been placed upon the mere economic aspect of the world-situation. The ideological and theoretical origins of Nazi-Fascism, as a consequence, have been almost entirely overlooked. Research is necessary to show where social, political and religious conflicts cross one another. There is abundance of incontestable proof that the forces of religion, as represented by the Catholic Church, have succeeded in dominating the political and social field, and that there exists a close bond between them and the origins, methods and objectives of the whole Nazi-Fascist movement in Europe. Furthermore, this domination has already spread to America. History proves that in every attempt made during the past half century against the liberal progress of mankind, the Jesuit Order, as the leader of Catholic action, has played a decisive role. We can go even so far as to state that Nazi-Fascism had its origin in the Society of Jesus, and that, like other movements in the past analogous to Fascism today, it was planned to serve the traditional aims of the disciples of Ignatius Loyola.

The Habsburgs were the Royal family of the holy roman empire (of german nationality from 962 to 1806)

Thousand year First Reich (empire)

The Holy Roman Empire was a multi-ethnic and complex union of territories in Central Europe existing from 962 to 1806. It was ruled by an emperor who was elected by powerful princes. How much power the Emperor had versus the princes, bishops and the pope was a highly controversial issue. Century by century the Emperor lost power until Napoleon abolished the empire as a useless anachronism.

The title was revived in 962 when Otto I was crowned Holy Roman Emperor (Latin: Imperator Romanus Sacer),^[5] beginning an unbroken line of emperors running for over eight centuries.^[4] Although Charlemagne was the first to bear the title and the agglomeration grew out of his empire, Otto I is generally regarded as the founder and the date of his coronation as the beginning of the Holy Roman Empire.

In a decree following the 1512 Diet of Cologne, the name was officially changed to Holy Roman Empire of the German Nation

In addition to conflicts between his Spanish and German inheritances, conflicts of religion would be another source of tension during the reign of Charles V. Before Charles even began his reign in the Holy Roman Empire, in 1517, Martin Luther initiated what would later be known as the Reformation. At this time, many local dukes saw it as a chance to oppose the hegemony of Emperor Charles V. The empire then became fatally divided along religious lines, with the north, the east, and many of the major cities—Strasbourg, Frankfurt and Nuremberg—becoming Protestant while the southern and western regions largely remained Catholic.

The Napoleonic Confederation of the Rhine was replaced by a new union, the German Confederation, in 1815, following the end of the Napoleonic Wars. It lasted until 1866 when Prussia founded the North German Confederation, a forerunner of the German Empire which united the German-speaking territories outside of Austria and Switzerland under Prussian leadership in 1871. This later served as the predecessor-state of modern Germany.

In the High Middle Ages, the dukes and princes of the empire gained power at the expense of the emperors. Martin Luther led the Protestant Reformation against the Catholic Church after 1517, as the northern states became Protestant, while the southern states remained Catholic. The two parts of the Holy Roman Empire clashed in the Thirty Years' War (1618–1648), which was ruinous to the twenty million civilians. 1648 marked the effective end of the Holy Roman Empire and the beginning of the modern nation-state system, with Germany divided into numerous independent states, such as Prussia, Bavaria and Saxony.

1571 wurden die Lutheraner des Landes (bavaria) verwiesen, ein Geistlicher Rat (spiritual advisory board) gegründet und ein Index verbotener Bücher aufgestellt. Seit 1556 machten die Jesuiten die Universität Ingolstadt neben Dillingen zu einem Mittelpunkt der katholischen Reform in Deutschland.

1648 came the Westphalian peace that ended the 30 year war and nationalism was the upcoming idea.

In the Franco-German War (1870-1871), German troops finally triumphed over France and arrested Napoleon III. Even before the truce proclaimed German princes and monarchs, the German Empire in the Hall of Mirrors at Versailles.

The Hall of Mirrors at Versailles is one of the largest, and one of the most famous rooms of the palace of Versailles near Paris in France. There are many famous political meetings were held on 18th Januar, 1871. All German small states were now united in one nation-state.

The second German empire was born.

Now, why do you think the germans were humiliated in 1918 in Versailles???

Vorreiter der Gegenreformation ist der im Jahre 1534 durch Ignatius von Loyola gegründete Jesuitenorden. Überhaupt hatten die Jesuiten, die von Papst Gregor XIII. entschieden gefördert wurden (siehe auch Reformpapsttum), bedeutsamen Anteil an der Gegenreformation in Europa.

Den Ausgangspunkt der Gegenreformation bildete das Konzil von Trient (von 1545 bis 1563 mit Unterbrechungen). Es betonte die dogmatischen und liturgischen Differenzen zum Protestantismus und nahm sich der gravierendsten Missstände in der damaligen katholischen Kirche an (Bestimmungen über die Priesterausbildung und Beseitigung von Pfründen- und Ablassmissbrauch).

Polen:

Poland may be thoroughly Catholic today, but the Reformation made great progress in that country in the middle and later 1500s. It is a prime example of the weaknesses of the reforming movement and the successes of the Catholic Reformation.

Students from Wittenberg brought the reforming message early to Danzig and Cracow, but here as elsewhere national sentiments directly affected the course of the reform movement. Partly because of Polish political traditions, partly because of long-standing ties with France, and partly because of a growing antipathy toward Germans, the Poles took much more strongly to Calvinism and Calvinistic sects. It's worth pointing out, too, that the Hussites had flourished in western Poland, so the country had a long tradition of dissatisfaction with the clergy. Moreover, the country also had a long tradition of religious toleration: many Jews had fled thither from persecutions in the West, and there was even an Islamic Tatar population in Lithuania. In the event, a number of different reform churches took root in Poland, especially during the 1540s and 1550s. While ideas and enclaves could be found everywhere, different flavors of Protestantism flourished in different regions of Poland, for exactly the same reason they did in Germany: due to the preferences and protection of the local nobility.

Als größter Erfolg der gegenreformatorischen Anstrengungen des Ordens wird Polen angesehen Nobility in 16th century was protestant, polish kings were catholic, King Sigismund III (1586-1632) was jesuit trained.

1717 den Neubau evangelischer Kirchen verbot und alle seit 1632 erbauten niederzureißen befahl; für den Abfall vom katholischen Glauben war nun die Todesstrafe vorgesehen. Den Jesuiten war es in gerade einmal einem halben Jahrhundert gelungen, den Katholizismus dauerhaft im Land zu verankern

Germany 2 WW:

Jesuits De-Rooting The Reformation

On the eve of All Saints' Day in 1517, Martin Luther, a professor of theology at Wittenberg University in Saxony, posted ninety-five theses on a church door. Luther's primary concern was the sale of indulgences--papal grants of reduced punishment in the afterlife, including releases from purgatory. First written in Latin, the theses were soon translated into German and widely distributed. Summoned by church authorities to explain his writings, Luther became embroiled in further controversy and in 1520 wrote his three most famous tracts, in which he attacked the papacy and exposed church corruption, acknowledged the validity of only two of the seven sacraments, and argued for the supremacy of faith over good works. In 1521 Luther was summoned to appear before Emperor Charles V at the Diet of Worms. Refusing to recant his writings, he was banned under the Edict of Worms. Secreted away by the ruler of Saxony, Frederick the Wise, Luther retreated to the castle of Wartburg, where he worked on a translation of the New Testament and wrote numerous religious tracts. Luther's disagreements with the doctrines of the Roman Catholic Church set off a chain of events that within a few decades destroyed Germany's religious unity. Although one of the most influential figures in German history, Luther was only one of many who were critical of the Roman Catholic Church. However, because of the power of his ideas and the enormous influence of his writings, it is he who is regarded as the initiator of the Protestant Reformation. Luther quickly acquired a large following among those disgusted by rampant church corruption and unfulfilled by mechanistic religious services.

Many warmed to his contention that religion must be simplified into a close relationship of human beings with God without the extensive mediation of the Roman Catholic Church and its accretion of tradition. Counter Reformation: The Counter-Reformation (also the Catholic Revival or Catholic Reformation) was the period of Catholic revival beginning with the Council of Trent (1545-1563) and ending at the close of the Thirty Years' War (1648), which is sometimes considered a response to the Protestant Reformation.

But it still goes on until today, driven by the society of Jesus. The inquisition of the dark ages is lurking around the corner and has even started in many places of the world, like syria and egypt.

More disguised all around the western world it is implemented by ,multiculturism' and the abolishment of christian holidays because other cultures could be offended. In Germany now streetnames and names of places named after Luther are discussed to be changed.

This series is going to explain the 3 Empires (Reich) that germany has gone through and how it came to be the so called ,Federal republic of germany' as we know it today and the impact on the german soul, culture and heritage.

Second broadcast 13/11/13

The first German nation state was founded in 1871, after the founding of the North German Confederation which was a follow up on the German Confederation

The German history began long before the birth of the State Germany. The Roman commander Julius Caesar made public the term "Germanic" in his book on the Gallic War about 50 years BC. For him it was a nation of wild barbarians. There actually was no speaking of 'a people': it was quite different tribes that fought brutally and spoke different dialects.

In 500 AD a great Frankish Empire emerged that gradually converted to Christianity. Charlemagne (747-814) expanded the empire by wars and was in 800 AD by the Pope in Rome proclaimed emperor. He looked at the direct successor to the Roman Empire and believed that the power of the Romans had been transferred to his Frankish Empire. This was the beginning of the Western Empire.

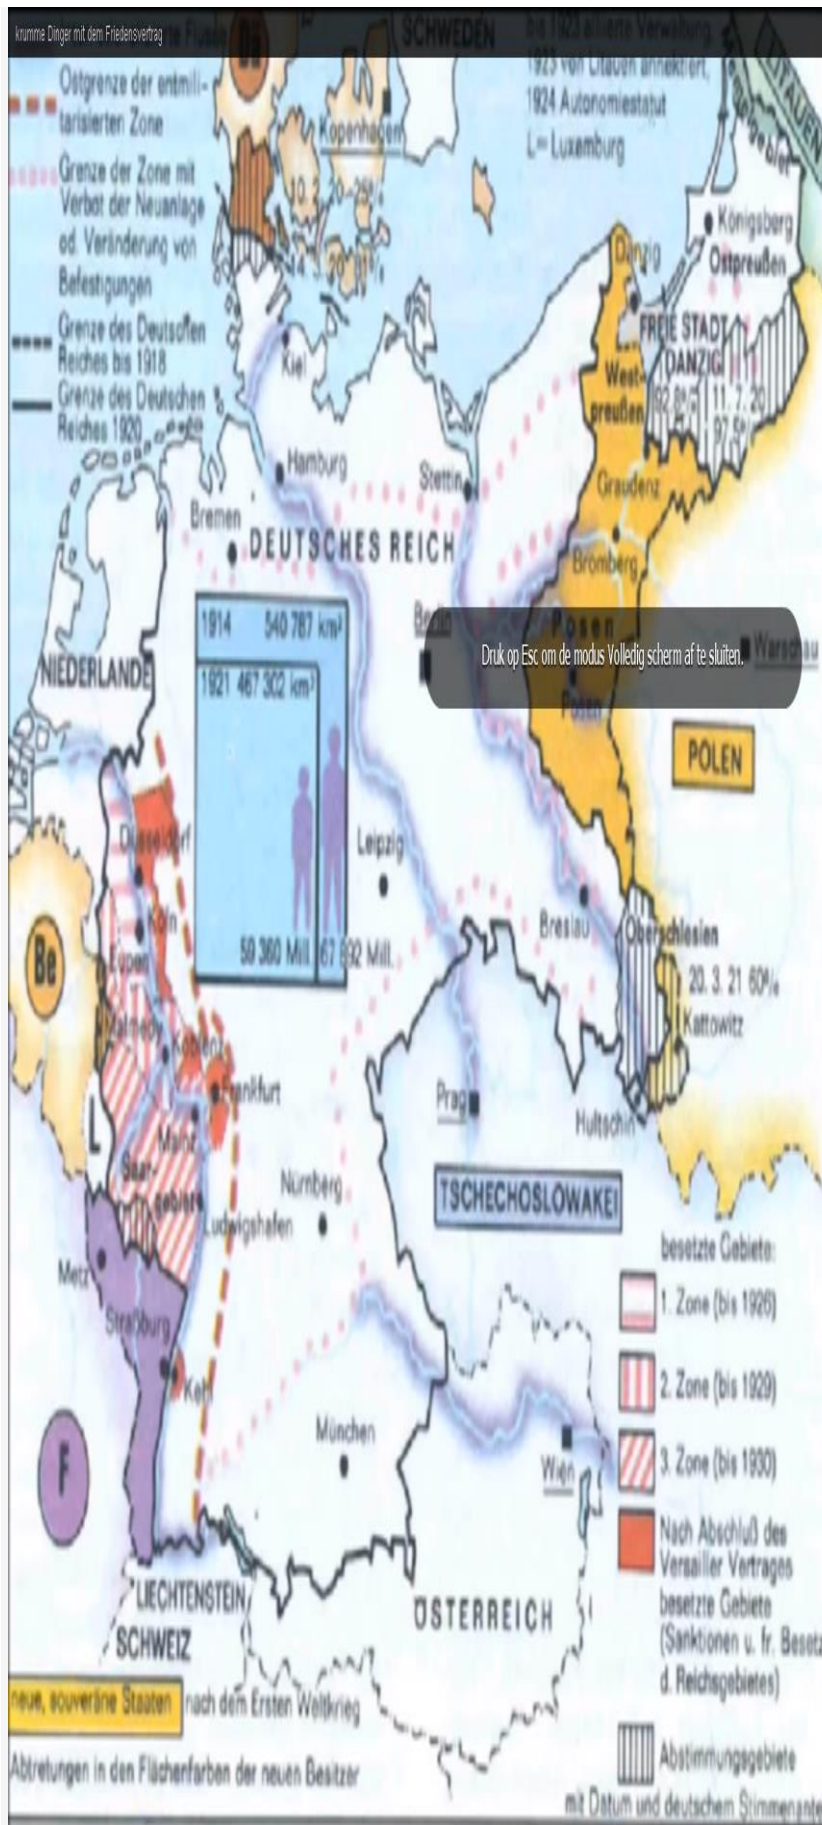

After the death of Charlemagne and his grandsons' fights the kingdom was divided. From the western part, the West Frankish kingdom, France would later arise from the East Frankish Empire arose Germany, but no nation state until 1871.

Otto I (912-973) extended the East Frankish kingdom back from the Mediterranean to the North Sea. He resorted to Emperor Charlemagne's idea of having an emperor and in 962 the pope of Rome crowned the emperor in Rome. From 1254 it was called the "Holy Roman Empire", in the 15th century it added the word "German nation".

The coronation of Otto I and the associated Empire is considered the beginning of German history , even when the kingdom was not a nation state , but consisted of many largely autonomous areas.

RE: info from America

Enjoyed the de-rooting the Jesuits broadcasts.

In spite of what the 'powers that be' have done and are doing to Germans others still have respect for them. German products are considered very well made and Germans themselves have always been considered good workers.

The space program here in US was possible because at the end of WWII the Americans brought the Nazi's rocket program here via Warner von Braun and others.

What you told us about getting rid of Germany and the people because of the Reformation made sense to me. When people start talking to each other we learn truth instead of what textbooks teach us.

Recently, I found older history books. They were published about 150 years ago. I learned many things about the history of Europe and Julius Cesar's time. I had learned in school Europe was feudal. (That meant Europeans couldn't get along and were fighting amongst themselves all the time. Another lie taught.) What I read in those books taught me something else. (These books would be considered racist in my country and therefore forbidden.) I learned Germanic tribes settled much of Europe, England and other lands. There were other groups of people who settled in different parts of Europe at different times, too. It is a fallacy to think there aren't differences among people and that's what causes the problems. It is now a major problem in the US but cannot be mentioned at all. If one does say something they are labeled a racist. I also checked into the term Aryan and couldn't find out much about it but I suspect it has been manipulated so as to represent Germans & racists. The only time I have ever seen the term in my life is on language charts, the root of all other languages. It points to what would be Afghanistan/northern India area today. Many things are not as they should be.

I am 61 years old. It is my liberal, baby boom generation that had its identity taken away from them. I went to school pre-immigration so have a sense of nationality and culture. here is US we lost our nationalities in the late 60s and became white. The break up of the family followed.

I was a liberal baby boomer too. With sadness I am writing this as I watch my own race disappear and I am sorry for my daughter. I think back to my strict father who was a veteran of WWII and his father fought in WWI. Many German Americas were generational war veterans then Viet Nam. It takes a toll on men and changes them.

The US has already passed the tipping point and is no longer a European descent nation. If one watches news stories around the country one will notice age 35 and under no longer have a full European features about them. These race numbers are reported in the newspapers yearly and everyone is quite happy over the fact whites are declining. It is common to hear 'others' say soon all those boomers will be gone. My own daughter, now 30, has dyed her hair dark since a teenager so as not to stand out as white among her classmates. (Many others do it, too.) Movies still have white male leads but their love interests are women of color & other nationalities. The young people follow what they see at the movies and on TV so this too has contributed to the color numbers in US. Younger people are uncomfortable with their European heritage. Immigration has been heavy for 35 years. Along with it a way of life is gone. Quality of life has dropped for most as neighborhoods become crowded. In 20 years America will look like Mexico and South America with enclaves of different nationalities here and there. The US is loosing its name and I have heard it referred to as The Americas. The southern border isn't fixed but fluid. Government officials on both sides of the border meet together as one. I can tell more horror stories but I would be stepping over a line.

I have been religious most of my life. Thanks for educating us about the Reformation. At least this madness makes some sense.

Sincerely,
VJ

Statement on channel:

Finding YouTube was my ticket out of the Watchtower Organization (Jehovah's Witnesses). I was recruited with a bible study and promised a large, loving, worldwide family 25 years ago. As a divorced mother with a young child this religion isolated us. The attitude toward women never came up during my study. The videos I have made reflect this.

My channel views other Jehovah Witness outreach channels as well as reflects my love of music, nature, current events & interests. I am no longer associated with organized religion but prefer to worship and search privately.

The jesuit oath of induction:

The Extreme Oath of the Jesuits:

The article below was taken from the book Subterranean Rome by Charles Didier, translated from the French and published in New York in 1843. Dr. Alberto Rivera escaped from the Jesuit Order in 1967, and he describes his Jesuit oath in exactly the same way as it appears in this book. After reading this, ask yourself the question: Is this REALLY the church of Jesus Christ???

"When a Jesuit of the minor rank is to be elevated to command, he is conducted into the Chapel of the Convent of the Order, where there are only three others present, the principal or Superior standing in front of the altar. On either side stands a monk, one of whom holds a banner of yellow and white, which are the Papal colors, and the other a black banner with a dagger and red cross above a skull and crossbones, with the word INRI, and below them the words IUSTUM, NECAR, REGES, IMPIOUS. The meaning of which is: It is just to exterminate or annihilate impious or heretical Kings, Governments, or Rulers. Upon the floor is a red cross at which the postulant or candidate kneels. The Superior hands him a small black crucifix, which he takes in his left hand and presses to his heart, and the Superior at the same time presents to him a dagger, which he grasps by the blade and holds the point against his heart, the Superior still holding it by the hilt, and thus addresses the postulant:"

Superior speaks:

My son, heretofore you have been taught to act the dissembler: among Roman Catholics to be a Roman Catholic, and to be a spy even among your own brethren; to believe no man, to trust no man. Among the Reformers, to be a reformer; among the Huguenots, to be a Huguenot; among the Calvinists, to be a Calvinist; among other Protestants, generally to be a Protestant, and obtaining their confidence, to seek even to preach from their pulpits, and to denounce with all the vehemence in your nature our Holy Religion and the Pope; and even to descend so low as to become a Jew among Jews, that you might be enabled to gather together all information for the benefit of your Order as a faithful soldier of the Pope.

You have been taught to insidiously plant the seeds of jealousy and hatred between communities, provinces, states that were at peace, and incite them to deeds of blood, involving them in war with each other, and to create revolutions and civil wars in countries that were independent and prosperous, cultivating the arts and the sciences and enjoying the blessings of peace. To take sides with the combatants and to act secretly with your brother Jesuit, who might be engaged on the other side, but openly opposed to that with which you might be connected, only that the Church might be the gainer in the end, in the conditions fixed in the treaties for peace and that the end justifies the means.

You have been taught your duty as a spy, to gather all statistics, facts and information in your power from every source; to ingratiate yourself into the confidence of the family circle of Protestants and heretics of every class and character, as well as that of the merchant, the banker, the lawyer, among the schools and universities, in parliaments and legislatures, and the judiciaries and councils of state, and to be all things to all men, for the Pope's sake, whose servants we are unto death.

You have received all your instructions heretofore as a novice, a neophyte, and have served as co-adjurer, confessor and priest, but you have not yet been invested with all that is necessary to command in the Army of Loyola in the service of the Pope. You must serve the proper time as the instrument and executioner as directed by your superiors; for none can command here who has not consecrated his labors with the blood of the heretic; for "without the shedding of blood no man can be saved."

Therefore, to fit yourself for your work and make your own salvation sure, you will, in addition to your former oath of obedience to your order and allegiance to the Pope, repeat after me---

"1, _ now, in the presence of Almighty God, the Blessed Virgin Mary, the blessed Michael the Archangel, the blessed St. John the Baptist, the holy Apostles St. Peter and St. Paul and all the saints and sacred hosts of heaven, and to you, my ghostly father, the Superior General of the Society of Jesus, founded by St. Ignatius Loyola in the Pontificate of Paul the Third, and continued to the present, do by the womb of the virgin, the matrix of God, and the rod of Jesus Christ, declare and swear, that his holiness the Pope is Christ's Vice-regent and is the true and only head of the Catholic or Universal Church throughout the earth; and that by virtue of the keys of binding and loosing, given to his Holiness by my Savior, Jesus Christ, he hath power to depose heretical kings, princes, states, commonwealths and governments, all being illegal without his sacred confirmation and that they may safely be destroyed. Therefore, to the utmost of my power I shall and will defend this doctrine of his Holiness' right and custom against all usurpers of the heretical or Protestant authority whatever, especially the Lutheran of Germany, Holland, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, and the now pretended authority and churches of England and Scotland, and branches of the same now established in Ireland and on the Continent of America and elsewhere; and all adherents in regard that they be usurped and heretical, opposing the sacred Mother Church of Rome. I do now renounce and disown any allegiance as due to any heretical king, prince or state named Protestants or Liberals, or obedience to any of the laws, magistrates or officers.

I do further declare that the doctrine of the churches of England and Scotland, of the Calvinists, Huguenots and others of the name Protestants or Liberals to be damnable and they themselves damned who will not forsake the same.

I do further declare, that I will help, assist, and advise all or any of his Holiness' agents in any place wherever I shall be, in Switzerland, Germany, Holland, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, England, Ireland or America, or in any other Kingdom or territory I shall come to, and do my uttermost to extirpate the heretical Protestants or Liberals' doctrines and to destroy all their pretended powers, regal or otherwise.

I do further promise and declare, that notwithstanding I am dispensed with, to assume my religion heretical, for the propaganda of the Mother Church's interest, to keep secret and private all her agents' counsels from time to time, as they may entrust me and not to divulge, directly or indirectly, by word, writing or circumstance whatever; but to execute all that shall be proposed, given in charge or discovered unto me, by you, my ghostly father, or any of this sacred covenant.

I do further promise and declare, that I will have no opinion or will of my own, or any mental reservation whatever, even as a corpse or cadaver (perinde ac cadaver), but will unhesitatingly obey each and every command that I may receive from my superiors in the Militia of the Pope and of Jesus Christ.

That I may go to any part of the world withersoever I may be sent, to the frozen regions of the North, the burning sands of the desert of Africa, or the jungles of India, to the centers of civilization of Europe, or to the wild haunts of the barbarous savages of America, without murmuring or repining, and will be submissive in all things whatsoever communicated to me.

I furthermore promise and declare that I will, when opportunity present, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do, to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth; and that I will spare neither age, sex or condition; and that I will hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics, rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants' heads against the walls, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race. That when the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use the poisoned cup, the strangulating cord, the steel of the poniard or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the person or persons, whatever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agent of the Pope or Superior of the Brotherhood of the Holy Faith, of the Society of Jesus.

In confirmation of which, I hereby dedicate my life, my soul and all my corporal powers, and with this dagger which I now receive, I will subscribe my name written in my own blood, in testimony thereof; and should I prove false or weaken in my determination, may my brethren and fellow soldiers of the Militia of the Pope cut off my hands and my feet, and my throat from ear to ear, my belly opened and sulphur burned therein, with all the punishment that can be inflicted upon me on earth and my soul be tortured by demons in an eternal hell forever!

All of which, I, __, do swear by the Blessed Trinity and blessed Sacraments, which I am now to receive, to perform and on my part to keep inviolable; and do call all the heavenly and glorious host of heaven to witness the blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist, and witness the same further with my name written and with the point of this dagger dipped in my own blood and sealed in the face of this holy covenant."

(He receives the wafer from the Superior and writes his name with the point of his dagger dipped in his own blood taken from over his heart.)

Superior speaks:

"You will now rise to your feet and I will instruct you in the Catechism necessary to make yourself known to any member of the Society of Jesus belonging to this rank.

In the first place, you, as a Brother Jesuit, will with another mutually make the ordinary sign of the cross as any ordinary Roman Catholic would; then one cross his wrists, the palms of his hands open, and the other in answer crosses his feet, one above the other; the first points with forefinger of the right hand to the center of the palm of the left, the other with the forefinger of the left hand points to the center of the palm of the right; the first then with his right hand makes a circle around his head, touching it; the other then with the forefinger of his left hand touches the left side of his body just below his heart; the first then with his right hand draws it across the throat of the other, and the latter then with a dagger down the stomach and abdomen of the first. The first then says Iustum; and the other answers Necar; the first Reges. The other answers Impious." (The meaning of which has already been explained.) "The first will then present a small piece of paper folded in a peculiar manner, four times, which the other will cut longitudinally and on opening the name Jesu will be found written upon the head and arms of a cross three times. You will then give and receive with him the following questions and answers:

Question — From whither do you come? Answer — The Holy faith.

Q. — Whom do you serve?

A. — The Holy Father at Rome, the Pope, and the Roman Catholic Church Universal throughout the world.

Q. — Who commands you?

A. —The Successor of St. Ignatius Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus or the Soldiers of Jesus Christ.

Q. —Who received you? A. —A venerable man in white hair.

Q. —How?

A. —With a naked dagger, I kneeling upon the cross beneath the banners of the Pope and of our sacred order.

Q. —Did you take an oath?

A. —I did, to destroy heretics and their governments and rulers, and to spare neither age, sex nor condition. To be as a corpse without any opinion or will of my own, but to implicitly obey my Superiors in all things without hesitation of murmuring.

Q. —Will you do that? A. —I will.

Q. —How do you travel? A. —In the bark of Peter the fisherman.

Q. —Whither do you travel? A. —To the four quarters of the globe.

Q. —For what purpose?

A. —To obey the orders of my general and Superiors and execute the will of the Pope and faithfully fulfill the conditions of my oaths.

Q. —Go ye, then, into all the world and take possession of all lands in the name of the Pope. He who will not accept him as the Vicar of Jesus and his Vice-regent on earth, let him be accursed and exterminated."

the British journalist and novelist Douglas Reed was the first prominent person to expose the fraudulent "Holocaust" atrocity narrative. The world almanac of 1947 showed that the jewish population actually increased from the year 1937 not decreased. The jewish mind benders attempted the same "6 million" hoax in the aftermath of the first world war. Voltaire showed that every jewish narrative found in "the scriptures" had been proved false.
